

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 25, 2008

DEBI CHIRICHELLA NAMED
COO OF CONDÉNET

Debi Chirichella was named to the newly created position of COO of CondéNet, it was announced today by Charles H. Townsend, President & CEO of Condé Nast Publications and Sarah Chubb, President of CondéNet. Her appointment is effective August 1st.

Ms. Chirichella has been the CFO of Condé Nast since 2005. She joined Condé Nast in 2004 as Senior Vice President of Finance. Previously, she spent eight years at Primedia, where she held senior financial positions including the EVP of Operations – Business to Business Group; SVP, Operations – Special Interest Publications; and VP & Group CFO – Magazine Group.

“Debi has done an outstanding job as CFO,” Mr. Townsend said. “I’m delighted that her desire to move into more of an operational role coincided with the need for a broadening of the leadership team at CondéNet, due to its rapid expansion.”

“Given CondéNet's extensive internal growth and robust acquisition activity over the past two years, Debi will play a key role in scaling the organization for future success,” Ms. Chubb said.

Ms. Chirichella holds an M.B.A. from Harvard, and a B.S. from Princeton University. She resides in New Jersey with her husband and their three children.

Condé Nast Publications, a unit of Advance Publications, includes twenty-six consumer magazines and their websites, CondéNet, the Fairchild Fashion Group, Parade, the Condé Nast Media Group, and the Shared Services Centers.

PRESS CONTACT:

Maurie Perl, Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications (212) 286-5893
maurie_perl@condenast.com